

BET TZEDEK - THE HOUSE OF JUSTICE
CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO A PRIVATE VIEWING

Gustav Klimt:
Five Paintings from the Collection of Adele and Ferdinand Bloch-Bauer

with

Maria Altmann
and Attorney E. Randol Schoenberg

on

Thursday, May 11, 2006

7:00 p.m. Cocktails and Dessert Reception
7:30 p.m. Maria Altmann and E. Randol Schoenberg
8:00 p.m. Private Viewing

LACMA
5905 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90036

Please RSVP to Kathy English at 323-549-5831
or kenglish@bettzedek.org

Convenient parking is available for $5.00 per car directly across the main entrance of LACMA in the Spaulding Lot. The Spaulding Lot is located on the Southeast corner of Wilshire Boulevard and Spaulding Avenue, one block east of Fairfax. Additional parking is also available for $6.00 per car at the Petersen Museum, located on the southeast corner of Wilshire and Fairfax Ave (entrance on Fairfax).

Cover image: Gustav Klimt's "Adele Bloch-Bauer I" (1907) courtesy of LACMA.

Estate of Ferdinand Bloch-Bauer
Photo © Museum Associates/LACMA

This exhibition was organized by the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and made possible through the generosity of The Broad Art Foundation, the Office of Los Angeles County Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky, Lynda and Stewart Resnick, Nancy and Dick Riordan, AT&T, Herta and Paul Amir, Kathy and Frank Baxter, The Gordon Family Foundation, Ellen and Andrew Hauptman, the Robert F. Maguire III Family, the Peter Norton Family Foundation, Ted Slavin and Patricia Rubin, Terry and Lionel Bell, Lee and Lawrence Ramer, and the Robert Gore Rifkind Foundation. Special support for this exhibition was provided by LACMA's Art Museum Council.